

Emergency Support Services Guide

For Civilian Employees

This guide contains information that will help you and your family in a time of emergency, however, it is not all-inclusive of the services available. Oklahoma 2-1-1 eliminates confusing searches for help by providing streamlined access to existing services by calling one number.

Oklahoma 2-1-1 connects victims of disaster with information about emergency shelters and evacuation routes during natural or manmade disasters. While services offered through Oklahoma 2-1-1 vary from community to community, this service provides callers with information about and referrals to human services for every day needs and in times of crisis.

72d Air Base Wing Commander's Introduction

"As Commander of the 72d Air Base Wing, I would like to invite all civilian employees working alongside our military members to utilize this booklet in the event of any unforeseen needs or emergencies.

As we have seen in the past, communication is vital to recovery and ensuring safety. My hope is that these services will never be needed.

It is my intent to ensure that all civilian employees working at Tinker AFB have information readily available on all emergency services when needed."

ALLEN J. JAMERSON, Colonel, USAF
Commander
